City Hall Display

Dave Carter's Missouri Mills is currently showing at the City Hall. The next people scheduled to show at City Hall are:

August – October: Cindy Fedelleck and Chester Lux

October – December: Matthew Kurz and Kathryn Marshall

December – February 2020: Jack Dieckman, Linda Hoover, and Linda Rhoads – all artists-in-residence at their churches.

If you have art work to display contact Linda Hoover at 660-238-6242 or hoovers@iland.net.

Bothwell Hospital Display

We will be changing the way we display the art in the Bothwell Cafeteria. We will be scheduling 3 people to display their work every 3 months. Each person will get one section that is approximately 6x6 feet. They will be able to display one large piece or multiple small pieces. I will setup a schedule like the one we have for the City Hall. The next change will be in September and one of the sections will be for Haylen Smith. If you want to hang your artwork in the Bothwell cafeteria please contact Glenda Miller at 660-458-6575 or millerscaveart@gmail.com. One of Linda Rhoads' paintings was sold to Kathryn Marshall.

Members Show in the Goddard Gallery

The Members Show at the Goddard Gallery is open with the theme Dreams. The pickup dates are Monday, August 19th and Tuesday, August 20th from 9 am to 5 pm. Marlis Wise sold one of her paintings to Dr. Anderson.

Workshops

Linda Hoover held a portrait painting workshop on June 29th from 9:00 am to 3:00 pm in the workshop room of Hobby Lobby in Sedalia. We had 6 people painting in the workshop room and we decided that 8 people would be the maximum number for a painting workshop and 10 for other types that didn't require a lot of tools or props.

NEW BUSINESS

Liberty Center

The Liberty Center has hired a new Executive Director, Diane Burnett who started on July 1st. SVAA will still have volunteers working until August 2nd. We will also be having our Christmas in October at the Liberty Center on October 4th and 5th. Linda Hoover and Marlis Wise will meet with Joe Fischer next Wednesday at the Liberty Center to discuss the details for the event.

NEW BUSINESS

A Taste of Market

The Farmer's Market is putting on an event called A Taste of Market on July 27th. They will be serving breakfast from 7:00 to 10:00. They have invited us to set up a tent to sell artwork. SVAA will furnish and pay for two 10' x 10' tents. If you want to be a part of this event, please contact Linda Hoover at 660-238-6242 or hoovers@iland.net. If you have your own tent or other type of setup and want to participate it will cost you $5. Please let Linda know because we need to let the Farmer's Market know how much space to reserve for us. This is also the same day as the bicycle race and some other events, so there will be a crowd downtown.

Biz, Sips & Bites

The Chamber of Commerce is sponsoring an expo on Oct. 29th called Biz, Sips & Bites. We have reserved a booth for SVAA members to connect with the community and display some of their work. If you wish to participate in this event, please contact Linda Hoover at 660-238-6242 or hoovers@iland.net.

Meeting Programs

August – State Fair no meeting

September 5th – Matthew Kurz
 October 3rd – Kansas City Artists, Inc. for a presentation on Marketing Art
 November 7th – Planning Meeting
 December – Christmas Dinner

Respectfully submitted by Glenda Miller.

President’s Challenge for 2019

Linda Hoover is challenging us to “step up our game” in supporting each other by looking for someone in the club that you can help with their art in some way. Some examples are helping to promote their work, providing supplies or equipment, or offering a tip on solving an art problem. Linda mentioned that there were a couple or people that offered to treat other members to the Christmas Dinner.
